An inquiry has been conducted into this matter. It is this intake worker's belief, however, that the facts are sufficient that court action could be sought, and this conclusion is undisputed by the juvenile and parents, guardian or legal custodian.

If there are objections, the intake worker may alter the terms of the agreement or recommend that a petition be filed.

This agreement may be terminated at any time upon the request of the juvenile, juvenile's parents, guardian or legal custodian. If the deferred prosecution agreement is terminated, the intake worker may recommend to the district attorney or corporation counsel that a petition be filed.

If at any time during the period of this agreement the intake worker determines that the stated obligations are not being met, the intake worker may cancel this agreement and recommend that a petition be filed.

The district attorney may file a delinquency petition within 20 days of receipt of this agreement. Filing of a petition will cancel this agreement.

If a deferred prosecution agreement is canceled because the juvenile's parent, guardian or legal custodian is not meeting the obligations imposed under the agreement, a hearing may be held for the parent, guardian or legal custodian to show good cause for not meeting the obligations. If good cause is not shown, the court may impose a forfeiture not to exceed $1,000.
